MR. TRUMAN has discovered all of a sudden that the Communists of the world are dangerous people, and so they

But why is it the Communists are more dangerous in Greece and Turkey then they are in Washington, D. C.?

Here he come to Congress and asks approximitely half a billion dollars to start an anti-Communist program abroad that says to Russia plain as day, "If you want a war, we're ready."

ready."
Yet right now, today, this very Sunday, there are on the pay roll of the taxpayers of the United States Communists who are for Russia first, and have been ever since Mr. Truman came to Washington a freshman Senator from Missouri.

In FACT they were in Wash-ington long before him. They came here with his predecessor in the presidency and laughed at Roosevelt as the Kerensky of our revolution."

They demonstrated their power in the Roosevelt admin-Nower in the Roosevelt administration right at the start. Who remembers the late Dr. William Wirt, of Gary, Ind. Dr. Wirt was a distinguished and liberal educator of world reports. nown.

He came to Washington to see what the brand new deal was like. He didn't come as a pay-roll patriot but as a plain patriot, wanting to find out what kind of people had risen to power.

That crack about Roosevelt being the Kerensky of the new American revolution wasn't the kind of thing he was used to in American government and having heard it one night at a New Deal dinner he stuck around to find out more.

WHAT he found out was that the Communists and their fellow travelers had at last, with Roosevelt, got themselves into places of power and importance in our Government. So he gave warning.

Did the newspaper editors and college presidents and members of Congress and other such opinion makers take him seriously? Well does this writer remember how for instance the distinguished Baltimore Bun and New York Times gave out gentlemanly haw haws at Dr. Wirt and how college presidents the country over followed up the cue As for Congress, it was just as pully as Romewell in the e days and it deliberately made Dr. Wirt a launching stock. Did the newspaper editors and s continued to say that thing a continued to say that we must worry about fascism and naziism abroad but as for communism, why it is not a problem and besides to criticize Communists would be red-bait-ing and who wants to be a red baiter? baiter?

MEANWHILE, the Communists climbed aboard the taxpayers' shoulders. They came in via the NYA, the NRA, the PWA, and the WPA, the CCC, the SEC, the FHA, and all the other early alphabetical trojan horses. They have never

For when the war came on they simply shifted over to the OWI, the OSS, the OPA, and so forth. They put the President's wife to work for them. They knocked down the barriers then even in the War and Navy departments. Communists became officers in our armed forces. And in time they showed their power by fomenting riots. forces. And in time they showed their power by fomenting riots, rebellions and mutiny in our forces abroad. Has it been forgotten already how United States soldiers barely a year and a half ago gathered on the front steps of the U. S. Army headquarters in Frankfurt. Germany, and booed the commanding general, Joseph T. McNarney? All in plain sight of the conquered Germans.

THAT, citizens, is a thing to think about if you wonder whether Communists have ever got into the Government of the United States in a significant and serious way.

Well, and when OSS. OPA, etc., began to fade, what happened to our Communists on the Government pay roll?

Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of State, less than three weeks ago, admitted to a committee of Congress that the reputation of the once great U. S. State Department has failen "very low." since the OSS, OWI, etc. crowd had been blanketed into it by the thousands.

FOR in with the rest, went the Communists, their fellow travelers, sympathices, dupes, dopes and tools. Such as these were the ones who chemeshed Mrs. Franklin D. P. Oosevelt in the Hanns Eisler passport case, of which you will be hearing details believe very long.

Hanns Eisler, in case you may have forgotten, is the Hollywood musical composer-brother of Gerhard Eisler, now accused by the House Un-American Activities Committee as a leading Russian say.

Russian spy.

The same committee promises a full public hearing on the queer details of Hanns' own story in a few days, and instructive it will be, too, as a lesson in how things were going around here in the Roosevelt headay. heyday.

AND the trouble is that Mr. Truman has not brought a substantial change. He is making ferocious talk at the Communists in Greece, Turkey, Germany and so forth.

It is the kind of talk that brings on war, as anybody who was alive and reading the papers from 1933 onward cam realize.

But what is he doing about the Communists on the pay roll of the United States right here in Washington, D. C.? What is he doing today and what was he doing this time a year ago? The Communists certainly age dangerous people, declared enemics of our constitutional government which it is their aim and purpose to overthrow by force and violence.

Why has Mr. Truman toler. But what is he doing about

Why has Mr. Truman tolerated them, then? They were just as dangerous a year ago as they are today and they were just as dangerous 10 years ago. Yet here they are and here they were, all the time.

How about letting the Federal Bureau of Investigation loose on these beauties? J. Edgar Hoover has been an experion the Communists for 38 years. He knows more about than on the Communists for 38 years. He knows more about them than any other American and he has the best record against them of any American. And when he speaks he deals in facts, not oratory.

How about Hoover making a series of detailed addresses to the whole nation on communism while President and Congress listen to a man who knows his business? And then how about following Hoover's outline to kick the Communists out of our own U.S.A. before we are angled up in any more bloody affrays abroad?

Self in a manner to indicate symmetry with those under inquiry and followed that demonstration by inviting a banch of them to the White House. At the chicken salad orry in the White House, following the fourth inauguration, the guests included William Cialimor, originally Margolis, a well-known thief whose notoriety and rise from the status of obscure and petry knave in the police records of New York was due to his consistent preaching of the policies, or line, of the Stalinist machine in the United States.

Many indubitable Communists were turned up in many departments of the Roosevelt Government, but in not one single case was there any acknowledgment from the White House or the Roosevelt party that their presence was at all regrettable or explanation of how they got there.

The decision of the Supreme Court in the Harry Bridges deportation case access to frustrate hope of pinning communism on anyondy.

Bridges was given a long and fair hearing by Judge Charles B. Sears, a distinguished jurist, under an unchallanced act of Congress. As the minority opinion of the Supreme Court said, Judge Sears recommended that he be deported on two grounds (a) That he was a member of the Communist party and (b) that he was "attiliated" with both the party and the Marine Workers' Industrial Union "which was a part of the Communist party."

The Board of Immigration Appeals of the Department of Justice, a body by no means comparable to Judge Sears in prestice but more comparable to any bureaucratic group of clerks, reversed the judge. Francis Biddle, the Attorney General, and certainly no Red-batter, reversed the Board and ordered Bridges' deportation.

The case then went to the Supreme Court and the majority ruled for Bridges, reversing Sears, the Court of Appeals and Biddle, in a long and wispy discussion of the meaning of the word "affiliation." In fine, however, a man could assist and co-operate with a violent, anti-American group in its legitimate activities without becoming guilty of its illicit purposes.

Chief Justice Stone wrote a minority opinion for himself. Frankfurter and Roberts which demolished the evil rubbish of the majority opinion. But that was only in the nature of a wail of regret for, by this decision, Bridges was welcomed to our midst and eventually to citizenship, in which status, of course, he may, if he desires, openly demand the violent destruction of the Government. As a citizen, he may advocate the illicit aims of the party, if he would.

A resolution is now pending by Congressman McDonough of California, which unmistakably damns communism as an international conspiracy against our Government and a Communist as anyone who expounds communist as anyone who expounds communism as an enemy of the country "to be dealt with accordingly."

Eleanor Set Right

Patrick J. Hurley, using the language of a cavalier, has patiently but firmly set Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt right about the Washington bonus marchers and what happened to them in Washington. Mrs. Roosevelt recently gave a completely distorted account of the matter in McCall's magazine. She wrote, in connection with the second bonus march in 1933 under her husband's administration:

"The first march, which had taken place in Mr. Hoover's administration, was still painfully fresh in everybody's mind. I shall never forget my feeling of horror when I realized that the army had actually been ordered to fire on the veterans. This one incident shows what fear can make people do. Mr. Hoover was a Quaker, and Gen. MacArthur, his chief of staff, must have known how many veterans would resent the order and never forget it; he must have known, too, the effect it would have on public opinion. Yet they dared do nothing else in the face of a situation that frightened them."

Gen. Hurley marshaled his facts well. The salient ones follow:

Most of the real veterans who took part in the 1932 bonus march went home when congress made an appropriation for their fare.

Leadership of the marchers, who had shacked up in downtown Washington on land condemned and partially cleared for new government buildings, fell into the hands of criminals and Communists. The FBI fingerprinted 4,334 of the last ditchers, and found that 1,069 of them had criminal records. Gen. Hurley quoted Benjamin Gitlow, an ex-Communist, to the effect that the representative of the Communist International turned purple with rage when "the plan to bring about in Washington a massacre of the hunger marchers as a result of provoked violent clashes with the authorities did not materialize." The Comintern spent $200,000 in its efforts to promote this bloodshed, Gitlow wrote.

President Hoover instructed Gen. Hurley, then secretary of war, to use the army to evict the marcher from their shack town after the squatters had repulsed Washington city police in a riot in which many police were injured and two veterans killed by police fire.

The only written order was that issued by Secretary

Hurley to Gen. MacArthur, which concluded: "In your orders insist that any women and children who may be in the affected area be accorded every consideration and kindness. Use all humanity consistent with the due execution of the order."

Not a shot was fired by the army, which used tear gas when rioters showered it with bricks. No one ever gave an order or authorization to shoot. No veteran was hurt by the army.

"The army did show force," said Gen. Hurley. "The force was intended to show the radical leaders that a government by all the people was still functioning and could not be overcome by an organized minority. No force was used."

To Mrs. Roosevelt's remarks about "fear governing President Hoover's and Gen. MacArthur's actions, Gen. Hurley retorted, "I have never known any two persons who were less affected by fear in formulating their course of action than these two men."

To this complete refutation of what she had written Mrs. Roosevelt said in McCall's, "I am glad to have an authentic account published and I only wonder why it was not done much sooner."

It was done much sooner. All of the facts that Gen. Hurley adduced have been published, most of them in official documents. Mrs. Roosevelt merely revived the long discredited smear stories of Charley Michelson, the Democratic press agent, and her Communist friends.

Gen. Hurley mentioned in passing the second bonus march in 1933. Hundreds of these bonus marchers, in whom the Communists lost interest when Mr. Roosevelt recognized Russia, were packed off to camps run by the veterans administration. In 1935 some 800 of them were still living on Matacumbe key and other islets off Florida. A hurricane threatened. It was testified later that the camp manager, after sending his wife and elerical staff to safety, told the veterans that if they tried to leave they would be restrained by bayonets. The hurricane struck.

President Hoover did not cause the death of a single bonus marcher. On the other hand, Mrs. Roosevelt's husband bears a heavy share of responsibility for the

Mrs. Roosevelt Voices Fears on

Mrs. Roosevelt warned yesterday against the threat to Insic American liberties involved in the Supreme Court approval of the Smith Act and the arrests under that law, in her nationally-syndicated column in the New York World-Telegram-Sun. "Outlawing a party," she said, "will,

I think, give a feeling to the peoples of the world that we are afraid to stand by the things on which we say we have built our nation and in which we believe. For that reason I feel we ought to move carefully."

Mrs_Roosevelt added:

have been thinking over carefully the dissenting opinions of Justices Douglas and Black in connection with the arrest under the Smith Act of the latest group of Communists.

Justice Frankfurter's statement-that he thought this bill (the Smith Act)

MRS. ROOSEVELT might be harmful, but that it was the duty of Congress to rass the law and not the duty of the Supreme Court to oppose the country's sentiment - seems to leave some topics open for discussion. "Such an attitude has not always been taken by the Supreme Court. It may well be the correct attitude. But in this particular case I am not sure our forefathers-so careful to guard our rights of freedom of speech, freedom of thought and freedom of assembly—would not feel that the Supreme Court had perhaps a higher obligation to point out whether a law endangered these freedoms."

In view of the fact that John Sates, editor of The Worker: is one of the 11 Communist leaders, Mrs. Roosevelt wrote:

I have s that, although I frequently disagreed with the opiexpressed by certain groups of papers in this count would hesitate to curtail their freedom of expression cause you may shortly find that you curtail the expre of opinion which you like."

Mrs. Roosevelt included numerous anti-Communi pressions in her column, echoing the charge of a desi overthrow our government by force."

She also observed: The Communist Party was outlawed in Franc fore World War II. Yet by the end of the war they a powerful group because they had stood side by side other Frenchmen in the defense of liberty."

DEFILING THE BILL OF RIGHTS

An Editoria

ANOTHER LEGAL ATROCITY was committed in the U. S. District Court Tuesday afternoon. A federal jury, after deliberating eleven hours, declared George Blake Charney, Alexander Trachtenberg and four other Communists guilty of violating thought control provision of the Smith Act.

Conviction of Charney, Trachtenberg and their codefendants. James E. Jackson, Jr., Sidney Stein, Fred M. Fine and William Norman for the "crime" of thinking reading and speaking their minds, was a sharp and stupid attack against our time-honored Bill of Rights, the right of all Americans to think and speak freely.

This trial, carried on over a period of more than three months at a tremendous expense to both the tax-payers and defendants, has proved one thing that the Department of Justice and Attorney General Brownell are continuing to shame our country in the eyes of the democratic peoples of theyworld.

This was the seventeenth Smith Act trial in which Communists were convicted on the trumped-up charge of conspiring to teach and advocate overthrow of the government by force and violence. During the period covered the indictments in these Smith Act trials the Commun Party of the U.S. in its constitutions and programs vigously denounced conspiracies, force and violence and a vocated a policy of peaceful transition from capitalism socialism in line with the will of the majority of the population.

The defendants were vividly accurate when they be clared the basis of the verdict was a combination of papolitical informers and anti-Communist prejudice. The is the firm conviction held by objective observers at the firm conviction held by objective observers

Indeed, the U. S. Supreme Court took an extrem septical view of Justice Departmet informers whe sent back the McCarran Internal Security Law for a look because of "tainted" evidence in a Subversive Activ. Control Board case against the Communist Party.

It is amazing that this trial should have taken p at all when McCarthyism is a dying relic and new peac relationships are developing between socialist and n socialist states. And it is noteworthy that the Amalgama Clothing Workers, Textile Workers of America, A Eleanor Roosevelt, Norman Thomas and hundreds of of prominent non-Communist Americans are calling for end of Smith Act persecutions.

The Supreme Court, too, cast doubt on Smith convictions when it agreed to review the California a Pittsburgh cases and the Communist membership contions of Junius Scales and Claude Lightfoot, The Chara Trachtenberg case will also be appealed.

But whatever the lawyers do in the fight against latest Smith Act outrage, the American people have a meresponsibility in the fight for defense of the Bill of Right

Negro People Won't Fall For Dem, GOP Bait

By Benjamin J. Davis

LIERE WE GO on the merry-go-round again. In the Negro press of Aug. 20, the Truman administration trots out its exhibit of 100 or more Negro apologists in a big well-heeled advertisement, appealing to the Negro people to vote for Truman in Novem-)

Pretty soon, Dewey will tade his usual election photos of Negroes to whom he has given appointments, together with a few more, and they will be urging the readers of the Negro press to vote for Dewey.

. And so it goes, ad infinitum. In fact, that could keep up for the next 100 years with just as little results as have come during the last 100 years unless we break through this vicious circle and support the Progressive Party and-Wallace,

The Negro people are accustomed to it and so will take it with a big grain of salt. However, It would seem that a goodly portion of the Negro leaders, socalled, would get wise to themselves and quit permitting themselves to be used as bait for the votes of our people, whom the rotten two parties cynically regard as suckers. But some of shese so-called leaders don't seem? to learn, or to care, as long assheir palms are greased, or their vanities twitted.

THE VOTE-FOR-TRUMAN ad. sterdam News, is quite cheeky indeed. It not only tells the Negro people to vote for Truman, It asks them to "work for Truman." It even goes so far as to tell them to "send dollars for Truman." The authors of that ad really have a peculiar sense of humor, Imagine asking the Negro people, whom Truman's policies are reducing to abject poverty, to finance Truman's campaign!

The financial appeal—just like the whole ad-ought to be di--Bethune, a very sweet woman, rected to Wall Street. That's whose interest Truman is serving, and they've got all the moneymine and everybody else's. Let Wall Street finance their office boy.

The ponderous name of the authors of the ad is "National Oitizens Committee for the Reelection of President Harry El ruman." Chairman is Congress nan Wm. L. Dawson, the Negro Representative of Chicago, who some could think had disappeared. which appeared here in the Am- . No one ever hears a peep out of him in Congress on nothing. Rankin could hatch a plot to lynch him right in the midst of the House, but I doubt if Dawson would know about it-much less say anything about it.

> There are quite a few other names. The social democratic red-baiter Willard Townsend, whom Phil Murray has annointed as his private Negro leader-but with no success whatsoever. Then there is Mrs. Mary McLeod who is personally very amiable, but who has never been able to cut herself loose from the apron strings of Eleanor (Roosevelt, It was not so bad when Eleanor was right—that is, when FDR was alive—but it's too bad when Elenor is wrong, as she is now in supporting Truman.

THENCE we go from the subime to the ridiculous. For example, the Hon. J. Raymond Jones, whom O'Dwyer fires and appoints, or appoints and fires whichever way you like it. This vicious circle is punctuated by Jones' resignations.

Last time he resigned to keep from "embarrassing" the Mayor. He was appointed as Deputy Commissioner of Housing and Buildings, presumably to do a job in making housing conditions better for the people of New York, including Harlem. What has embarrassment to the Mayor got to do with it? I am sure all the alum victims of landlords in Harlem are going to be glad to vote for Jones' choice for President.

Then there is a long list of so-called leaders who wouldn't know a struggle of the people if they saw one.

"By His Deeds Shall Ye Know Him," so says the ad in referring to Truan, who evidently has become Jesus. Then it lists eight things Truman has supposedly done on the issue of Negro rights. But each of the eight is something Truman said, not done.

They give Truman's record all right—but it's a phonograph record. I'd like to ask them some questions about Truman's doing.

There have been many more than 50 lynchings since V-J Day, but not a single federal prosecution, not even of the lynching of two Negro veterans and their wives in Monroe, Ga. What has Truman, done on that?

• The Ku Kiux Kian recently met openly in Georgia and pledged to enforce white supremacy by bloodshed. What has Truman done on that?

Negroes are lynched and terrorized when they attempt to vote. What has Truman had his politax Attorney General do on that?

The ad says Truman asked for an FEPC. But didn't Truman kill the FEPC in 1946 by flatly refusing to enforce its order against job discrimination on the apital transit lines? (As a result Charles Houston resigned from

Truman has uttered more demagogy on Negro rights than any President in the last 50 years. But has he fought-for a single measure, even when the Democrats had control of Congress from 1944 to 1946? (On the contrary, Truman is moving in the direction of fascism.)

According to the ad, Truman is the champion of civil liberties. Well, is not Truman the first President ever to attempt to outlaw the Communist Party? And then to jail and frame militant Negro leaders or deport them, to terrorize the Negro people into voting against Wallace?

BUT THE PAY-OFF is that the ad says nothing about war. Apparently all these Negro leaders don't care whether they'll be dead or not. But, dead a lot of us are going to be, if they keep lapping around Truman while he drags us to the abyss of World War III. Our country is not the only one with guns.

I guess most of these Negro (Continued on Page 14)

(Continued from Page $) isaders—who support the imperialist, war-mongering Marshall Plan—feel like their White House boss feels, that is, the Negroes haven't got anything to do with whether this country goes to war or not. They're just supposed to be in a Jimcrow army dying for the glory of Wall Street.

I don't think the Negro people are going to fall over themselves for Truman—much less, send him their shrinking pay envelopes so he can get reelected to give them more of same. The same thing for Dewey.

But it is obvious that between now and Nov. 2, Truman and Dewey are going to promise the Negro people the moon itself. Certain Negro leaders, for reasons of their own, will accept these thless promissory notes, but gro masses will not.

Mrs. F.D. Admits Work With Reds

NEW YORK, Aug. 29 (AP). Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt said today she knew for a long time the American Youth congress followed the Communist line but worked with it just the same.

Her purpose in doing so, she wrote in McCall's magazine, was to change the organization's course.

The former First Lady said the experience "was of infinite value to me in understanding some of the tactics I have had to grapple with in the United Nations."

Mrs. Roosevelt's article was she said:

Murray's statement was made in a speech prepared for delivery here before a dinner ponsored by the American Friends of Gernan Freedom-an organization established is help promote the underground fight gainst the Nazi regime inside Germany.

AFL Support Pledged

The CIO president joined with George W Harrison, vice president of the Ameri-on Federation of Labor, in pledging support to anti-Fascist labor forces in Germany. Although unable to be present himslef, Harrison sent a message in which he said:

"Those heroic patriots in Germany who preserve the unkindled lights of freedom will some day raise the torch so that all mankind can again enjoy the blessings of a free way of life. You may count on me and members of our organization for support in this great and important work."

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt also was sched-uled to address the meeting, together with representatives lof the underground movement in Fascist nations, including Paul Hagen, veteran anti-Nazi German laborite, and Bruno Zevi, Italian anti-Fascist student

Reiterates Accusation

Significance of the labor pronouncements was heightened by charges made by Hagen against U. S. Government agencies on the eve of the meeting. Hagen declared at a press conference Monday that Government officials responsible for promoting disaffec-tion inside Germany had refused flatly to

> We do not think that a quarantine belt of Darlans, Francos, and the like in other nations can give the same security which could be given by the incorporation of Germany in a much stronger democratic control - the control of a world federation in the European region," Hagen declared.

> In his prepared address, Murray for the first time strongly aligned U. S. labor in support of "an international council to serve as a standing agency for solution of international political and economic problems and for enforcement of peace."

Urges World Police

One can foresee the necessity as well for an international executive body and, beneath it, democratic agencies for the planning and direction of international economic activities and a democratically controlled world police designed to prevent future outbreaks of vandalism by gangsters like Hitler and Mussolini," Murray asserted.

"Federal union has worked well here in America, despite the diversity of our population and differing regional interests. We see no reason why it cannot work in Europe, and we are apt to feel that we have a right. considering our having been drawn into European conflict twice within a generation. to urge that such system be set up and that it be integrated, along with other regional federations, into the global union which has been suggested."

Murray said that American labor would 'stand four-square against any peace of re-

"We shall urge a firm policy toward the aggressor nations. We shall see to ft that they do not rearm. We shall see to it that they root out the tyrannies which have turned these nations against the world. But

First Lady Quits Spanish Loyalist Refugee Mission

Mrs. Franklin 1. Roosevelt and Dr. John Haynes Holmes, clergyman, were reported yesterday to have resigned as sponsors of the American Rescue Ship Mission because it was "not under good auspices."

The mission had been raising funds for a ship to bring Spanish Loyalist refugees from Marseille, France, to Vera Cruz, Mexico. It was charged in New York yesterday that Communists and their sympathizers had conceived and largely administered the unitertaking. (Details on Page 4.)

many careful inquiries about the American Rescue Ship Mission because I have been troubled by newspaper charges and private accusations connected with its activities. As the result of this investigation I conclude that I am not equal to keeping track of the endless happenings, complications and rivalries which surround the mission.

"On account of my handicap I am a slow worker. It was because my heart was pierced by the plight of the Spanish refugees that I tried to help them. But now I find the extra effort for the mission too heavy a burden in addition to my life's work under the American Foundation for the Blind. Therefore I am resigning from the American Rescue Ship Mission altogether.

"My affectionate interest in the refugees remains. It grieves me deeply that circumstances did not leave me free to do what I should like to for them, but I shall rejoice at whatever is accomplished in the rescue and rehabilitation of those heroic champions of Spanish freedom."

The resignation of Miss Keller left the American Rescue Ship Mission under the effective leadership of a group that split off last year from the original Spanish Refugee Relief Campaign of Bishop Francis

J. McConnell and Harold L. Ickes. The group that formed the present American Rescue Ship Mission was ousted from the original Spanish Relief Campaign for apparently preferring to help Communist propagands rather than relief and for sahotaging the efforts of their associated liberals to get Spanish refugees to safety without regard to politics.

Until Mrs. Roosevelt's quiet resignation caused an upheaval, the American Rescue Ship Mission had as executive secretary, during its seven months, Fred Biedenkapp, recognised as one of the formos, Stalinists in this country.

To stem the quiet tide of resigna-words, he gave way in December to the present executive secretary. Miss Helen R. Bryan, formerly secretary of the Institute of Race Relations and local secretary of the American League for Peace and Democracy until it dissolved under the impact of charges of Communist control.

Miss Bryan recently reviewed the list of members of the executive committee of the American Rescue Ship Mission and indicated which were "very active" and which "active."

She rated as "very active" Helen Simon of the American Youth Congress, Herman Shumlin, theatrical producer, and Ernestina Gonzalez of the United Spanish Women's Front.

As "active," she marked Mildred Rackley, former relief sit-downer who later served with a medical unit in Spain; Leverett Gleason, promotion manager of the magazine Friday; William E. Dodd Jr., D. William Leider, trade union lawyer; Dr. Louis Miller, former chairman of the medical bureau of the American Friends of Spanish Democracy, and Professor T. C. Schneirla, one of the seceders from the original Spanish Refugee Relief Campaign them it undertook to suppress apparent Communist tactics.

Among those whom Miss Keller interrogated as to the present operations of the American Rescue Ship Mission were Miss Bryan and Dr. Edward K. Barsky, former chief of the foreign medical service in Republican Spain. The chief arguments to reassure Miss Keller, however, were carried by Dan Gillmor, editor and publisher of Friday, and by Miles M. Sherover, who had occasion to deny repeated charge of Communist propaganda when he was purchasing agent herefor the Spanish Republican Government.

Mr. Sherover admitted yesterday that it was he who produced the latest ship, the Lovcen, which the American Rescue Ship Mission now proposes to send to Castblanca in French Morocco to talk sway a load of such Spanish refugees as may have escaped there from the French mainland. He said it was not practicable, as proposed with an earlier ship, to get into Marseille for those most in danger.

A sailing date of Feb. 26 was set in advertising yesterday that proposed to raise $100,000 for the trip. If this amount is not raised, Mr. Sherover says, the Lovcenstill not

MISS KELLER QUITS-RESCUE SHIP DRIVE

Acts After Own Inquiry Into 'Red' Charges—Two College Presidents Also Resign

Helen Keller announced yesterday that she had resigned, "grieving," as honorary national chairman of the American Rescue Ship Mission, for which she was instrumental simunths ago in obtaining the spongraphip of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and other outstanding figures.

Since Mrs. Roosevelt resigned quietly on Dec. 17, writing that "there are other groups serving the same purpose with which I would be happier to be affiliated," Miss Keller has been investigating the evidence that she had been used as a front for controlling figures more interested in communism than in the avowed purpose of the ship mission to rescue Spanish republican refugees from France.

"On account of my handicap," she wrote yesterday, "I am a slow worker."

Her companion and intermediary, Polly Thompson, explained that Miss Keller approached the resignation with travail of heart. "Miss Keller trusted her heart," she said.

In her examination of the evidence Miss Keller emphasized that she re-encountered the handicaps of her blindness and deafness, which she had overcome during a half century with a courage that won net international respectively was these handicaps that her friends warned her had been exploited. For that reason, in resigning, she apologized for staying longer than others.

Dr. Henry Noble MacCracken, president of Vassar College, thereupon revealed yesterday that he and Dr. Roswell G. Ham, president of Mount Holyoke College, had resigned låst month, Dr. MacCracken had said after Mrs. Roosevelt resigned that he would "stand by Miss Keller as long as she is satisfled of the need." Dr. Ham had said he would stay as long as he was satisfied that "funds would not be deflected to other purposes." They resigned later, however, in a joint letter that the American Rescue Ship Mission suppressed.

Meanwhile Miss Keller had made two efforts to satisfy herself by questioning the controlling figures in the Spanish Rescue Mission. One interview was on Jan. 23 and the other on Feb. 3. Miss Keller asked questions. Miss Thompson communicated the answers by a system of finger telegraph. A stenographer took a record of the dialogue.

At both the first and the second interviews Miss Keller found the answers vague, contradictory or evasive, but thought that might be due to the complexity of the subject and the difficulties of communication. So she ordered the entire transcript done into Braille so that she might read it with her own finger tips and take it apart slowly.

Yesterday she issued the following declaration:

I was saddened to read of the notice served on the Rev. Robert B McNeill who was removed from his Southern Presbyterian pastoral post in Columbus, Ga., on the order of his church's governing body. It is interesting to realize that Rev. McNeill was born in Birmingham, Ala., and that it was only after he grew up that he made the discovery that a belief in segregation on the basis of race or of color is a dangerous philosophy.

I don't think his dismissal will do Rev. McNeill himself any harm, for I am sure there are many churches that would like to affirm a belief in free speech for their ministers, and I will not be surprised to find that such churches exist in the South.

The harm lies in the fact that such a decision indicates a failure to understand what disservice is being done to our country in the over-all struggle of democracy versus communism.

All of us know from the records that the men of the South know how to die for their country, and the women have known how to support their men. But it is a much more difficult thing to live for your country when it means a change in the mores that you have been brought up with.

The knowledge that you can help to safeguard your country in the struggle that lies below the surface but which is going on all the time between the Communist powers of the world and the powers of the West only by accepting a gainge in mores is often perhaps not well finderstood.

I was reminded the other day that in speaking of the Southern Conference Educational Fund I mentioned that it "is probably the only organizated in the South where people of different colors can work together."

The reminder came immediately that the Southern Regional Council and its state and district affiliates also work, regardless of different colors, for equality among men. And I was told that the stontgomery Council on Human Relations, a local branch of the Southern Regional Council, played an important part in the bus. Also pointed out to me was the fact that Negroes and whites alike who fight for civil rights are been made to suffer for their views.

am very glad to know how many people of courage the South has, but I am not surprised, for as I have said, this is a traditional quality of the South.

Judge Bars Evidence on Why Dennis Defied Un-Americans

By Rob F. Hall WASHINGTON, June 24.—Justice David Pine issued a series of rulings today which a bound to hamper the defense of Eugene Dennis, general secretary of the Communist Party, of the charge of contempt of Congress. The judge excluded all testimony showing Dennis' motivated and the charge of contempt of Congress. n challenging the constitutionality of the House Un-Amercan Committee and all evidence relating to the smear-and/its constitutional function of un tactics of the Thomas-Rankin group. The effect of the legislative committee.

Legal observers here expressed he opinion that with the issue inced so narrowly, a verdict of acuittal is almost out of the question.

HIOMAS ON STAND Rep. Thomas was first witness for he prosecution today Under ques-coning by Louis F. McCabe, chief icfense counsel engaged by the livil Rights Congress, Thomas adnitted that in 1919, when he was 34 years old, he changed his name rom J. Parnell Feeney. He also confessed that the subpens handed Dennis in the Un-American Comuittee hearing room on March 26 had been prepared five to 10 days · arlier.

Thomas said the Un-American Committee had no official standards by which it judged the "un-Ameri--anism" of individuals and organcations it labelled. "But I am sure that each member of the committee has a pretty good idea of what is un-American," said Thomas.

Thomas, after some hesitation, admitted the committee had built up a file of names of persons and groups it considered un-American. He set the number at 100,000 but, when his own wells were read to him from the Congressional Rocerd, raised it to a million namer and a thousand organizations. The files filled seven large reems, he haid.

McCabe asked him if the commitsee had ever called in any of the person to limbelled and given area. In opportunity to defend themselves. gainst the charges.

I "Is your test of un-Americanism," McCabe asked, "an organization which would destroy free speech? Is it one which would defame and accuse persons of erime and then give them no opportunity of defending them-selves?" Thomas reluctantly answered ves.

"Did you hear the leaders of the Bouthern Conference for Human Welfare on the charges you placed against them before you issued that report branding it as a Communist front?" McCabe asked.

Assistant U. S. Attorney John W. Fiheliy was on his feet immediately to object. Judge Pine sustained the objection.

WHAT'S IN A NAME

Thomas described Dennis' appearance before the un-Americans on March 26. Thomas said Dennis refused "to give his other name."

"Did you ask the movie star, Robert Taylor, whether that was his right name when he appeared before your committee?" McCabe asked. Thomas answered no.

Pointing out that Thomas was willing to accept Taylor's testimony purpose or in had faith," he said, under any name Taylor chose to. He therefore valed the Taylor give, he asked: "If you sincerely letter was not admissible as eviwished to know Dennis' thought on dence before the jury.

was not only interested in the anti-Communist bills - it was also "investigating Communism." McCabe thus scored a point, supporting the defense positions that the un-American Committee had exceeded

Judge Pine refused to permit Thomas to answer a series of questions which exposed the pro-fascist leanings of the Thomas group. These involved:

• Thomas' address before the fascist-like Patriotic Society in New York, Dec. 12, 1939.

• The glowing praise of the un-American Committee by Fritz Kuhn, fuehrer of the German-American Bund.

• The statement by Rep. John E. Rankin (D-Miss.) that the un-American Committee-was "the grand jury for America."

• The inclusion of Eleanor Roosevelt, Harold lickes, Chestel Bowles, and other liberals on the un-Americans' blacklist?

Dennis is charged with "wilfull Under questioning by Fihelly, default" because instead of appearing before the un-American Committee in response to a subpena he sent a letter challenging the right of the committee to operate in its present manner.

The Judge ruled the term "filfull" means only "deliberate and intentional, not accidental or inadvertent." It does not mean, as the delense maintains, "with an evil

Drive to Aid German Labo

However, at next week's session, Murray Hanison and other labor officials will join hands with leaders of underground labor activity in Germany, Italy and other countries. Among these who will be present are:

Bruno Zevi, 25-year-old Italian student leader who participated prominently in antifascist campaigns at the University of Rome until the outbreak of war.

Dr. Reinhold Kiebuhr, chairman of the Friends of German Freedom, described next week's Washington meeting as the first step "in formally establishing a relationship between the strong democratic labor organizations of America and their weaker but not less democratic counterparts in Europe, facilities formany and Italy."

Niebuhr said the meeting will initiate an effort to convince leaders of the United Nations that "the anti-Nazi workers in Germany and occupied territories are genuine allies who given the facilities-including arms at the proper time and other assistance -are prepared to strike important blows at

Germany.

The dinner is being sponsored locally by a committee of Congressmen, newspaper correspondents and Jahor leaders. Among the sponsors are James G. Patton, president of the Farmers Onion; Rep. Will Rogers, Ir., Marquis W. Chikls, Rep. Joseph Clark Baldwin, and Kenneth C. Crawford of PM.

False Unity

by Max Gordon

THE FIRST EDITION of last Saturday's New York Post carried astory about an "off-the-record conference" of "non-Communist liberals" to be held in Washington, Jan. 4.

For some mysterious reason, the story was yanked in the later editions, but the conference has been referred to since by certain "liberal" columnists whose chief claim to fame seems to be a vitriolic hatred of the Soviet Union and a persistent redbaiting.

The facts regarding this "off-the-record" conference. as reported by the Post, are these:

 It was initiated by the Union for Democratic Action.

· Among the endorsers thus far are Eleanor Roosevelt and Chesler Bowles.

 CIO leaders expected to take part are John Green of the Shipbuilders. Emil Rieve of the Textile Workers, and Walter Reuther of the Auto Workers. There was an uncertain reference to the possibility of CIO president Philip Murray either attending or sending a representative.

· AFL leaders who have signifled they will attend are David Dubinsity of the Ladies Garment Workers and Hugo Ernst of the Hotel and Restaurant Workers.

IT 18 CLEAR that this Jan. 4 ronfab was initiated by Social-Democrats of the Dubinsky type. The Union for Democratic Action is dominated by them. It enerally follows the bitter redraiting, anti-Soviet line of the Golal Democratic Federation.

During the recent CIO convenon, Reinhold Niebuhr, leading IIDA spokesman, was hastily sumnoned by Social Democrats inide the convention to lecture to he delegates against the CIO fereign policy resolution, which called for Big Three unity and countries the Unit with the countries of the Unit was against the Unit at once.

Aff the unionists mentioned as definitely that up with the conference are widely-known Social generally from them on the basic e of foreign policy.

FOR INSTANCE, the UDA and the Dubinsky crowd birthely attacked Henry Wallace's foreign. policy speeches during the caunpaign. But PM adopted Wallace's Garden speech as the expression of its own policy.

The CIO union leaders directly tied to the conference opposed. the CIO foreign policy resolution when it came to a vote on the convention floor, a resolution strongly backed by Murray.

The AFL leaders mentioned were among the creators of the arch-reactionary foreign policy adopted by the AFL national convention, which is directly opposed by Murray, a leader of the World Federation of Trade Unions.

But while the conference represents an effort to unite people who differ fundamentally on the real Issue of foreign policy, the basis for this projected "unity" is the utterly false issue of "Communism."

According to the Post story. the conference was prompted by the need for "liberals" to get away from "Communist Party domination of liberal affairs," and from too close a hewing to the Soviet line in foreign policy.

JUST WHERE the Communist Party "dominates" liberal affairs and what "liberal groups" hew too closely to the "Soviet line" in foreign policy is not, of course, made clear. But since the Chicago conference to unite various progressive groups was held only recently and is being followed up by further meetings, we suspect this is what the initiators of the Jan. 4 conference were referring to.

If so, they describe it in those terms because they figure no conference is free from "Communist domination" which does not bait the Soviet Union and which refuses to accept the Dies-Rankin-Taft-Dewey thesis of the "red menace."

Since the purpose of the "red menace" thesis is to disrupt and paralyze progressive movements, what the Social Democrats are trying to do is to promote their false unity in order to block genuine unity on the real issues of peace, economic well-being de-Enocracy.

Mrs. Roosevelt also in effect has repudiated the Communists, writing that, while she admires Russia and admits the right of the Russians to have the kind of government they desire, she does not wish to be controlled in this country by an American group that is controlled by Russia and Russia's interests. It is the contention of the right-wing Labor party leaders that the party's left wing is dominated by Communists and fellow travelers and that its policies are derived from Russia and follow the Communist party line.

of the American Labor party as represented by what I consider is the real leadership under Mr. Antonini as State chairman. Their stand on foreign affairs has always been my own and I do not-thing there would be any doubt in the minds of the leftwing group that, while I endorsed the statement which the entire party, I imagined, would be united on still, I was certainly not endorsing primary candidates in opposition to what I consider the regular American Lator party, when I am not even a member of this party.

I have no illusions whatsoever as to the stand which the American Communist party has taken in American affairs. I admire Russia and the marvelous fight which Russia is putting up, Russia has, a right to the kind of government that Russians desire to have, but I do not wish to be controlled in this country by an American group that, in turn, is controlled by Russia and Russia's interests. There are many things, naturally, on which all groups agree. I should like to see labor people united, because it would add to their strength, but they cannot be united politically with people who act under the dictates and in the interest of another nation.

1 am writing you this because I do not wish you to use my name or my letter again in any publication whatsoever.

I am quite willing to have you give this letter publicity if you so desire, and I shall send a copy of it to Mr. Antonini and Mr. Rose for such use as they may deem wise.

Very sincerly ELEANOR ROOSEVELT. Right Wing Sees Itself Aided

With the right and left wings of the Labor party engaged in a primary fight for control of the party organization and State Convention, right wing leaders expressed belief that Mrs. Roosevelt, by what amounts to repudiation of the left wing, will help the right wing candidates at the primary election next Tuesday. Left wing leaders, however, declared that Mrs. Roosevelt's original letter had not been used for any factional purpose but merely in an attempt to bring about national unity before any primary contests developed.

"Mrs. Roosevelt has been misinformed," Mr. Connolly said. "We have never authorized or sanctioned the use of her letter for any political purpose whatsoever. Her comment on the New York County Committee's win-the-war brochure was released to the press on May 15 with her specific permission granted in writing through her secretary. It has never been published or mentioned by us on any other occasion. We still believe Mrs. Roosevelt is a most gracious

First Lady Backed Policy

Mrs. Roosevelt's original letter to Mr. Connolly expressed approval of the New York County Committee's policy of pledging support of Congressional candidates who were "earnestly supporting the war" and urging unity of race, class and creed.

On May 5, Mr. Connolly sent a copy of the statement of this policy to Mrs. Roosevelt and on May 7 received a reply, in which Mrs. Roosevelt characterized the statement as "splendid," correspondence files at the left wing headquarters were said to reveal. On May 11, Mr. Connolly wrote Mrs. Roosevelt asking for permission to use her statement and a reply from Mrs. Malvina C. Thompson, her secretary, said that Mrs. Roosevelt had no objection to publication.

Mrs. Roosevelt's Criticism of Officials' Action Is Called 'Stupid' by Inomas

Special to The New York Times. CHICAGO, April 22—The palsy at the top level of leadership in the United Automobile Workers, CIO. grew more pronounced today when grew more pronounced today when a newspaper, column written by Mr. Eleanor Roosevelt touched off a liting exchange between Walter P. Reuther, new president, and R. J. Thomas, the man he succeeded.

Thomas commenting upon the observation by Mrs. Roosevelt that he and George F. Addes, secthe observation by Mrs. Roosevelt that he and George F. Addes, secretary-rteasurer, and Richard T. Leonard, second vice president, had given an exhibition of "human nature at its worst" in issuing their joint statement of labor policy last week, said that the former "First Lady" had been "stupid," and charged that Mr. 'Reuther was trying to "freeze" him from the labor movement. labor movement.

Mr. Leonard, who disclosed that he had been the prime mover be-behind the joint statement, de-plore dthe fact that Mrs. Roose-velt had taken occasion to discuss critically the internal affairs of the union, while Mr. Addes declined an invitation to comment upon the turn of events.

upon the turn of events.

In her syndicated column Mrs.
Roosevelt said that it was "a sorry picture to see human nature at its worst as evidenced by the statement given to the press in Chicago last Thursday by three officials of the United Automobile Workers, CIO, without consultation with the union's nawly-alected wrasident union's newly-elected president, Walter P. Reuther."
"The anti-Reuther officials were sole to do this apparently because they have more votes on the executive board than Mr. Reuther has even though the rank and file elected him president," Mrs. Roosevelt said.

Mr. Reuther, who was elected by the delegates at the UAW convention in Atlantic City nearly a month ago, is here to attend a meeting of the international board, the members of which were elected at the same convention by the same delegates in what was inter-preted widely to have been the first step toward repudiation of the administration of the new leader.

Mrs. Roosevelt's column had a bomb-shell effect upon the meeting of the board.

"I want to see labor strong and unified and the kind of thing which has just happened within this group is the kind of thing which will give the opposition to union leadership a great hope that they can control labor groups for their special interests," Mrs. Roosevelt said.

Mr. Reuther, refusing to be drawn into a debate on the questions raised by Mrs. Roosevelt's column and Mr. Thomas' rebuttal, said that he considered it "most regrettable that Mr. Thomas is finding it difficult to adjust him-self to his new position in the union and that during the pass several days he has seen fit to attack me in public meetings and other meetings."

UE Group Urges UN Act on U. S. West Indian Ban

The CIO United Electrical Workers, District Four, has appealed to the United Nations Human Rights Commission against the American government's policy of racial discrimination against West Indian and Central American workers in the Panama Canal Zone.

The appeal, addressed to Mr. Eleanor Roosevelt, is the first appeal made by an American trade union for UN intervention to end American policies of jimerow. Under the government imposed and maintained system the Zone's workers are classified as "silver" and "gold" workers. These are mainly colored persons and white persons, respectively.

The "Gold" workers get higher wages, live in better houses, have fine recreational and other public facilities, from which the "silver" workers are barred.

"It is needless to say," the UE appeal declared, "that West Indians and Central Americans will never be impressed when we speak of our concern about human rights unless we grant them to all."

The appalling official jimcrow policy in the Zone was exposed in a documentary report recently issued by the CIO Federal Workers who have carried on a relentless fight on behalf of the workers, many of whom it represents in the Canal Zone.

CIO ON POST-WAR

'Unholy Alliances to Loot Consumer's Pocket' Would Bring Chaos

WANTS AGENCIES RETAINED

Mrs. Roosevelt Says Public * Should Be Educated on Causes of Strikes

By WALTER W. RUCH

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8—Continued spending by the Federal G. rernment on a large scale after the war was envisioned today by Viet President Henry A. Wallace in an address at the convention of the Congress of Industrial Organizations. He pleaded for the retention of the agencies of the New Deal to showh the shoots of sattern Deal to absorb the shock of returning soldier millions.
Mr. Wallace called upon workers and farmers, as one of six duties he outlined for them, to thwart any attempt to get a "balanced dollar budget" if it meant "a naked and helpless National Government telling all to save themselves who can."

The test of any balanced budget was its ability to prevent insolvency of misery and chaos, Mr. Wallace said, adding that selfish, no false economy shall be permitted to destroy these sound agencies of present government which can absorb and cushion the of returning soldier milshock '

Unless "our energies, our great affection, our wisdom, plan now for jobs and health and security and ful production," Mr. Wallace said, the post-war nation will be filled with "roving bands seeking food where there are no jobs; where there are no jobs; seeking shelter where there is no shelter

At the same time, Mr. Wallace warned labor and agriculture of their duty not to enter into "un-holy alliances," with capital "to-loot the consumer's pocket," de-claring that "any limiting of pro-duction and hiking of prices by ciaring that "any limiting of pro-duction and hiking of prices by special agreements between capital" bosses, labor bosses and agricul-tural bosses is plain highjacking." If such practices are to spread, he said, "they will impoverish the country, increase unemployment and eventually destroy both or ganised labor and organised agriculture.

Mrs. Rosevelt Urges Education

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt praised the CIO for extending its no-strike pledge and asked that it underake an educational program to teach people to recognize condi-tions that must be remedied if

Mrs. Roosevelt, who by virtue of her membership in the American' Newspaper Guild is also affiliated with the CIO, called upon the union members to tell the story of injustices, inequalities and bad conditions so that the people at home would take action to elimi-nate the things which bring about work stoppages.

"Most people don't know what leads to strikes," Mrs. Roosevelt said. "If you pledge not to strike then it is up to you to get the people to remedy that which otherwise would lead to a strike."

Declaring that the first real duty of the worker and the farmer was to his country, Vice President Wallace said they should promote the general welfare and participate, fully in government as a sitisen water. In this connection he praised the ClO's political action committee, headed by Bidney Hillman, which has as its purpose greater, participation in politics by labor.

The second day was to guard against "high-jacking" the con-sumer and the third to preserve the agencies of present Government to cushion the shock of returning sol-

"The fourth duty of the farmer and worker," he said, "is to see that capital is fairly treated, that the man who risks his name and credit may get his risk capital re-tirred when he has served well in creating new jobs and needed prod-ucts. Conference Unity Planned

The way for collaboration between American labor groups at the international Labor Conference in London next May was paved at the convention through the adoption of a resolution on international labor unity.

The resolution directed Philip Murray, president of the CIO, to communicate at once with the heads of the American Federation of Labor and Railroad Brotherhoods and other labor groups in this country that will attend the conference in order that labor from America can present a united front.

Mr. Murray commented, "has taken the original step toward international labor unity and has won the initial victory in uniting the forces of American labor upon a common program. ## Dies Reveals Phone Calls To White House From CIO-PAC

The report, prepar a by Chief vertigator Robert E. Stripling, ted numerous long distance ephone calls from PAC officials to the Executive Mansion, in two of which Mrs. Roosevelt was said to have participated.

Telephone calls from Chairman Sidney Hillman's New York office were reported to have reached 72 members of the New Deal's official family, including President Roosevelt's Administrative Assistants David K. Niles and Jonathan Daniels, Attorney General Biddle, Price Administrator Bowles, and Secretary of Labor Perkins.

Long distance phone records subpoenaed by Stripling disclosed that on two occasions top executives of the PAC called Mrs. Roosevelt at the White House.

On Feb. 2, 1944, the First Lady was listed as having conversed for eight minutes with C. B. Baldwin, former Farm Security Administrator and now Assistant Chairman of the PAC.

PAC Chairman Hillman was listed as having talked four minutes to Mrs. Roosevelt April 5.

Niles was recorded as having had no fewer than 13 White House conversations with the PAC, two with Hillman and 45 with Baldwin, from Dec 1943, to May, 1944.

In the report Stripping in effect called the PAC a political blackjack and asserted that its activities probably defeated Sen. D. Worth Clark, (D-Idaho) in the primaries, and led to the defeat. of Rep. Joe Starnes (D-Ala.) a veteran member of the Dies Committee.

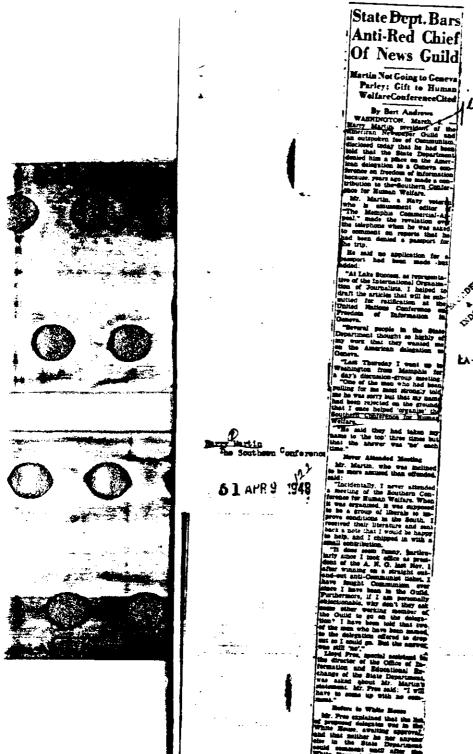

He asserted Baldwin assumed his duties with PAC, Dec. 14, 1943, and was on the Federal payroll until April 11.

"It is apparent," Stripling wrote, "that Baldwin either was paid for 131 days leave, which is contrary to the law, or he was working for the PAC at the same time he was working for the Federal Government, in which case he would certainly be in violation of the Hatch Act."

The officials named in the report included Katherine Lenroot, Chief of the Children's Bureau; Assistant Farm Security Administrator Charles Brannan and Carl McPeak, labor representative of the WPB.

They also included WPB Labor Production Vice Chairman Joseph Keenan, Assistant Budget Director Paul Appleby, Assistant Secretary of the Interior Oscar Chapman: Howard Talley, Chief of the Agriculture Department's Bureau of Economics, and Keith Hinebaugh, Agriculture Departmen' Information Director.

*ELEANOR ROOSEVELT

Just at this time, when many of us have felt that the individual was losing many of his rights, it is encouraging to note the decisions of the U. S. Supreme Court upholding the Constitutional freedoms.

The court—at least the majority on it—seems to have redefined the ancient idea that its function is to guard the rights granted to our people in the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. This it has done in reversing the contempt conviction of John T. Watkins, labor leader, and the freeing of five California Communist leaders convicted under the Smith Act and the granting of a new trial for nine others.

I also am glad that, after his long fight, John Stewart Service, former foreign service officer, won a reversal of the judgment of the Court of Appeals which in June, 1956, held that Mr. Service had been rightfully dismissed as a security risk.

When you study the way the different court justices acted in reversing the Communist leaders' convictions, you find certain differences in their reasoning.

For instance, two of them, Justices William Black and William O. Douglas, felt that the Smith Act is unconstitutional. I have not the space to discuss the legal points, but I think it is well worth everyone's time to read the varied opinions.

I, for one, am glad that the court has handed down a decision which forever bars any Smith Act indictment under the "organize" section. The word "organize" was being construed in its narrow sense, meaning that simply bringing a Communist group into being was found to be a cause for indictment. The court held that the Communist party had been organized in its present form by 1945 at the latest and that, in 1951 when the indictment was brought against the leaders, the three-year statute of limitations had run out.

Another interesting news development of the past few days was the statement by Harold Stassen, head of the U. S. delegation to the London disarmament talks, that the U. S. will move toward the position of the Soviet Union in an effort to come to an agreement on banning nuclear weapon tests.

The British already have taken this position, so it looks as though this session of the disarmament conference will make some real progress.

Mrs. F.D., Wallace Rebuked For Praising Aubrey Williams By WILLIAM HOORE by the Senate, the need not work By WILLIAM HOORE

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and Commerce Secretary Wallace were given a Democratic rebuke in the Senate yesterday for attending a dinner at which the Senate was criticized for its refusal to confirm Aubrey Williams as Rural Electrification Administrator.

The dinner, at which Williams was guest of hopor, was held last night by the National Farmers' Union.

Senator Bilbo Protests

Rising in the Senate to protest the action of the President's wife in attacking Senate procedure, Senator Bilbo (D.), of Missilssippi, called the Williams gathering a "funeral dinner," and said:

"Some of the chief mourners alleged to have been present were Mrs. Roosevelt. Secretaries Wallace and Wickard (Agriculture) and a distinguished Republican Senator.

"The Secretary of Commerce, whip has just recently encountered considerable delay in getting over a senatorial hurdle, was bold enough to declare that notwith-standing the very decided and affirmative rejection of Williams by the Senate, 'he need not worry about a job in the Government.'

"Poor Judgment"

"Personally, I think that the head of any government agency, or even the President for that matter, would show very poor judgment in defying the good will of the Senate, which refused to consent to the use of this man in mental affairs, by giving Williams any appointment in the Government.

"Mrs. Roosevelt's presence, to-gether with her audacious statement that Williams is a leader of democracy, will be hard for a great many Senators and Demo-cratic leaders to understand. She cratic leaders to understand. She asserted that the cause of liberalism "has not even lost a round" in the defeat of Williams."

Bilbo warned that if the "mourners" wish to present Williams as the symbol of American liberalism, "the Democratic party will have to do a little house, cleaning."

Two Republican Senators attended the Williams dinner. They were Senators Aiken, of Vermont, and his governmental philosophies and Langer, of North Dakota.

Rumors 'Kill' Many Prominent U. S. Figures

NEW YORK, April 13 (N. Y. News).—The death of Franklin D. Roosevelt, which most New Yorkers learned by word of mouth, unleashed a flood of rumors today that other leading figures of the political and entertainment worlds also had died.

Switchboards of New York newspaper offices were swamped with calls from persons seeking confirmation of reports that President Truman and Mrs., Roosevelt, among many others, were dead.

Dempsey Sign Confuses

The rumors began last night, a few hours after the President succumbed. Van Johnson, the Hollywood star, was the first reported dead. From then on, the list grew. And when Jack Dempsey's restaurant in Times Square put a sign in its window today announcing its closing out of respect for the deceased Chief Executive—a sign that confused its readers—the reports spread wildly.

The placard read: "Closed on account of the death of our beloved President," and was signed "Jack Dempsey Restaurant Corporation." But while the announcement and Dempsey's name were in block type, the words "Restaurant Corp." were in extremely small letters. A few minutes after the sign was displayed, the rumor that Dempsey was dead had spread throughout the city."

Other persons whom the rumers killed today were: Any or all of the four Roosevelt sons: Harry Hapkins, Gene Tunney. Al Jolson, Robert Taylor, Franchof Tone and comedians Olsen and Johnson.

"Did Joan Shoot Chaplin?"

But it remained for the michpublicized Joan Barry and Charlie Chaplin to furnish the most extravagant report of all. Hundreds of breathicss citizens called New York newspaper shops and asked: "Is it true that Joan Barry shot Charlie Chaplin, and killed him?" No, it wasn't, replied the weary operators.

All told, until 5 p.m. the New York News received 4,689 such calls. Of that number, only 917 were seeking details of Roosevelt's death and funeral plans. The other 3,772 were rumor calls. At one point in mid-afternoon, News operators were so tied up that, under orders, they immediately disconnected as soon as the caller asked "is it true...."

For nearly half an hour last

For nearly half an hour last evening, in the hour from the first radio flash on F.D.R.'s demise, New York Times switchboard operators greeted all incoming calls with "yes, it's true" before the caller could state his case and then closed the key.

The Times-Herald yesterday received nearly 100 calls regarding the erroneous rumor of the deaths of Jack Dompsey. Van Jahnson and Frank/Sinatra. The times major radio network outlets here also reported their lines were busy with queries from sports and movie fans. None of the stations, however, broadcast denials of the rumors.

McCarthy's Charge Against Miss Kenyon One of the Funniest

By ELEANON ROOSEVELT

HYDE PARK, Friday—Sen, Joseph R. McCarthy, in choosing the name of Miss Dorothy Kenyon for his first "revelation" of "Communist" elliployes in the State Department, seems to me very ill informed—for of course, in making such accusations he would not, I feel sure, allow himself to be partisan.

he would not, I feel sure, allow Miss Kenyon has long been well known to many women, not only in New York City but also in other parts of the U.S., as well as in other countries. She has belonged to innumerable organizations; and even if she did Join some that turned out to be so-called subversive ones, every woman who knows her would be sure that Miss Kenyon's intentions were good.

The only possible criticism of

The only possible criticism of Dorothy Kenyon I can think of would be that she hoped at times to accomplish more good things than I believe can be achieved all at one stroke. But to imply that she is a Communist, or in any way subversive, is one of the luminest things ever suggested. Any woman who has served with Miss Kenyon in any organization, or talked with her at any time, will dismiss this accusation with a smile. If all of the honorable Senator's "subversives" are as subversive as Miss Kenyon, I think the State Department is entirely safe and the nation will continue on an even keel.

THE March winds yesterday blew cold and raw, but when the sun came out and the sky cleared, you forgot that three minutes earlier a snow squall was sweeping across the field and making you shiver! I had a chance to walk with the dogs, and I finally found time to go thru piles of manuscripts, magazines and pamphlets which had accumulated beside my desk ever since last summer.

Several friends came in to tea, one of them somewhat late after spending an nour and a half extricating his car from the mud in the woods. That is also a sign tha' March is really here, with the mud instead of the snow and ice forming the real barrier to motoring over certain roads. In any case, I have no desire these days to motor. I want to use my own legs and feel the companionship of my two little dogs, then come back with joy to the open fire and a book.

fascinating volume at the mo; ment; but it is hard to finish one; reading, for the days are never long enough up here. There is so much to do and so little time, even tho I remind myself of the dictum my mother-in-law always used with my children. If they tried to say that they were late, or had not accomplished some thing because there was "no time," she would always answer: "My dears, my Aunt Laura always said to us: 'You had all the time there was.'" All the time there was is never quite enough for me. I would like a few hours added to both the day and the night—a little more time to work, and a little more time to sleep. That would suit me very well.

Addressing the biennial convention of the Textile Workers Union, CIO, at Carnegie Hall, Mrs. Housevell said:

Calling the amendment "a gold Calling the amendment "but would brick that may glitter, but would hurt if it hit, Miss Elizabeth Magee, general secretary of the league, with headquarters here, said that copies of the letter were being sent to every Senator and Representative.

Signers of the letter are carrying on a long battle against the Na-tional Woman's Party, which has sponsored the proposed amendment since it was introduced in Congress in 1928.

The opponents insist that the amendment would not only not achieve its objective but weuld open the floodgates to exploitation of women workers and jeopardize also protective legislation essential for the health of mothers.

Several Reasons Stated

The letter says: We believe in equal rights for romen.

"We oppose the so-called Equal Rights Amendment because it disregards the fact that while men and women are equal in right they are not identical in economic and ncial function or in physical capacity.

Because it would imperil hard won legislation enacted to safe guard women as homemakers an mothers, including laws regulating hours, employment of young girls exposure to industrial substances and processes which are particular-hexardous to women—laws which working women themselves to not wish to book.

Beenkille, while resting these safeguards, it would not redress major inequalities persisting today, not only in professional and technical fields of training and practical fields of training and practical fields of training and practical fields of training and ensured traditions and sustant

"Because this proposal, if enacted and ratified, would confuse and complicate essential progress toward higher standards of safety and security for all workers-men as well as women."

Among the signers of the letter are officials of many organizations, including Mrs. R. Angelo, president, National Council of Cathelle Women; Mrs. Mary McLeodoffe-thune, National Federation of Colorgd Women's Clubs; Mrs. Eleanor Anderson of the National Y. W. C. The signers also include women prominent in official Washington, such as Mrs. Franklin Defloosevelt, Miss Marie Anderson, chief of the Women's Bureau of the Department of Labor; Mrs. J. Borden Sarriman and Mrs. Charles P.

BEITISH PROPOSAL SCORE

Delaying of U. N. Agency Held Uncooperative Here at Dinner of Jewish Writers

In a brief summing up of past, present and future Soviet policy on Palestine, Andrei A. Gromyko issued a warning last night against any affort by "foreign monopolies" to dictate the future economies of the newly created Arab and Jewish states. The occasion was a U.S.A., U.S.S.R. Palestine friendship dinner.

Mr. Gromyko, chief Soviet delegate to the United Nations, also defended the decision on partition as equally just to Arabs and Jews. He criticised Great Britain for saying that the United Nations commission should not enter Palestine until shortly before the termination of the mandate.

The delegate's views were presented at a dinner in the Hotel Commodore attended by 1,000 Commodore attended by 1,000 members and guests of the American Committee of Jewish Writer

Herschel V. Johnson, permanent United States representative to the United Nations, had been invited to be a speaker with Mr. Gromyko, but illness prevented the former from attending.

The dinner guests adopted a resolution praising Mr. Johnson for his role in the successful partition fight. At Lenox Hill Hospital by was said last night to be floring nicely in recovering from a recent heart attack.

tween his country and the United States on the subject of Palestine. This was echoed in an address by Dr. Emanuel Neumann, president of the Ziomet Organization of America, and in a statement read in behalf of Moshe Shertok, head of the political department of the Jewish Agency. All expressed have that the agreement was not Jewish Agency. All expressed hope that the agreement was not an idle precedent.

The Soviet delegate said the United Nations Commission on Palestine faced serious difficul-ties, but he felt that it had the powers to contend with them.

"It has the necessary authority," he said, "in case complicated problems requiring the interference of the United Nations confront it. This authority is insured by the fact that the commission must work under the instructions of the Security Council, which is already occupied with the Palestinian occupied with the Palestinian question and which in case of necessity is ready to deal with this question in order, to assist the speediest and most effective execution of the decision on the partition of Palestine.

"There is no need for me to ex-plain at length that not only the decision taken on Palestine, but its fulfillment, has been facilitated by the fact that it has become pos sible for such powers as the U.S.S.R. and the U.S. A. to agree on this question. As is known, the agreement between these two tw countries on important question of international significance i rather an infrequent phenomeno: at present.

Incidents in Palestine

"It is only to be regretted that after the adoption by the General Assembly of the decision on Palestine the number of incidents as a result of the clashes between separate groups of Araba and Jews has increased there.

"These incidents are the consequence of the actions of some irresponsible elements attempting to hamper the realization of the plan of its partition. Such actions can-not present the final fulfillment of this decision.

We cannot agree with the assertions which imply that the decision on the partition of Palestine is aimed against the Araba countries. Arab countries. It is our deep con-viction that this decision corresponds to fundamental national in-terests of both the Jews and Araba

In this connection, suffice it to point out decision on connomic cooperation between them This cooperation will enable both of the states to utilize their economic resources with the atmost mutual benefit.

"Naturally, this can be achieved when such a cooperation is besed upon taking into consideration the interests of both of the people but not when it constitutes the means of adaptation of the score omy of these new states to the economic needs of foreign monopo-lies, which as it is known are al-ways ready to trample on the independence of any small and defenseless state, especially when such a state itself does not value sufficiently its sovereignty and its independence if this is accompanie by the increase of their profit."

Successful realization of Unite Nations decisions Mr. Gromyk commented, "requires the coopera tion of Great Britain with the United Nations and first of a with the above-mentioned com-mission not in words but in deeds formal cooperation is absolutely insufficient."

The speaker added that it would be an "abnormal" situation if the United Nations commission spent too much of its time at Lake Success instead of going to Palestine
"and getting acquainted with the state of affairs existing there and sarrying out on the spot the tasks intrusted to it."

British Procedure Assayes

"It is said," Mr. Gromyko observed, "that the British authorities in Palestine intend to hinder the work of the commission in this respect, that they are not going to admit it into Palestine until the British troops are withdrawn from considerable areas; in other words, they will not permit it to enter Palestine until May 1 or June 1, 1948.

"I do not know whether this information corresponds to reality, but if it appeared that it did, then such a situation cannot be conside ered as normal. The commission has been created precisely for the purpose of carrying out its work in Palestine, i. a., where it is obliged to assist in the fulfillment of the decision of the Assembly.

"Let us hope that Great Britain THE will yet cooperate with the commission in the solution of this Date question not in words but in deeds and at any rate that it will not

By PHILIP DODD

A picture in a British newspa-per of an Office of War Information employe, described by the paper as "making a tour of youth organizations in Britain on behalf of Mrs. Roosevelt," will be the subject of senatorial inquiry when OWI appropriations are considered, Senator Robertson (R.), of Wyoming, predicted yesterday,

The DWI worker is Miss Louise Booth Morley, 25, daughter of Christopher Morley, American author. She is a $2,600 a year employe of the "outpost service nureau" of the OWI's British distributions of the OWI's British distributi vision and is attached to the American Embassy in London, enator Robertson said.

First Lady Urges Negroes To Fight For Full Equality

(By The Associated Negro Press).
Chicago, Sept. 29.—That Negroes should continue their fight for complete equality and full rights under our democratic government is urged by Mrs. Elenea Russevelt in an exclusively, wristen article appearing in the October issue of Negro Digest, published in Chicago at 2507 Sould farkway.

Writing on the subject, "If I Were a Negro " the First Lady in direct, non-evasive style gives her ideas on what she would do about discrimination, social inequality and army jim crow. "If I Were A Negro," says the First Lady, "I think I would have momenta of great bitterness. It would be hard for me to sustain my faith in democracy and to build up a sense of goodwill toward men the other races.

"I think, however, that I would realize that if my ancestors had lever left Africa, we would be rorse of as natives today under no rule of any other country than am in this country where no people were brought as slaves."

Continuing, Mrs. Roosevel says: "In a comparatively short paried of time the slaves have he come free men—free men, that is as far as a proclamation can make them free. There now remain much work to be done, to see the freedom, becomes a fact and place a promise for my people."

Up to Justice Unit: 37 Deportation Is Urged

The future status of Hanns Eisler, German composer, is up to the Justice Department today, following the recommendation yesterday of a Rouse subcommittee that He be prosecuted and then deported for fraudulently obtaining admission into this country."

Four members of the House Un-American Activities Committee unanimously made these recommendations, after three days of hearings into the circumstances of Enser's permanent entry into the United States in 1940 and several temporary visits before that time.

Chairman Thomas said the record of the nearings will be transmitted to the department promptly, and a spokesman for the agency said would be given immediate attention.

national Communist naura international Communist naura in subcommittee report said "the racard is clear that Ealer perjured his way in and out of the United States at will."

Alde by Notables.

While examining former high officials of the State Department, the committee brought out that hers. Heanof Roosevelt and a list of other prominent persons wrote to the department at various times in Histor's behalf, while he was having tha difficulties before the war.

The report absolved State Department officials of any pro-Communist, sympathies but expressed the opinion that, "through the influence on and pressure exerted by certain prominent people, efforts were made to such an extent that, in the final analysis, the principal point at issue, that is to say communiam, was entirely overlooked and the case reserved itself into a mere determination of whether Eisler was a professor within the meaning of the law."

Hanns Eigler contended before the committee he came to this country to pursue his career as a composed. He has written music for motion pictures during the past five years. During the hearings, he admitted having applied for membership in the Communist Party in Germany in 1926, but insisted he was never a member in the real sense. He told the committee he has taken out first papers is become an American critism.

Tactimenty on "No Repty."

Through the testimony of Immigration Service officials, the committee seaght to show that, when he entered the country, Hanns Elsier answered "no" to a question whether he had ever been affiliated with the Communical Party in any manner.

The four members of the Unamerican activities Committee who came as a subcommittee wood mahimously on the Ealer republication of New Jersey Representatives to New Jersey Representatives the hearing, in the opinion of the mmittee, has shown beyond that Hanns Elsler was not more member of the Communist Party as he has testified, but that he has been an international Communist figure of extreme limportance to the Soviet Union for many years.

Recerd Called Clear.

The record is clear that Eisler perjured his way in and out of the United States at will, going to Soviet Russia and other countries whenever he pleased. The record shows that finally during the war, Eisler was given a haven, and a very lucrative one, in the United States, although it was clearly indicated that he could have found refuge in Moseow, London or Mexico, where he had previously been at various intervals of time. The committee need not point out that Hauns Eisler is the brother of Gerhard Eisler, who was recently convicted by paspor freud and contempt of Congress, and that the brothers, according to the record, were in close communication.

with reference to the State Department file and the testimony of George Messeramith (former Assistant Secretary of State), the committee does not in any way intendite imply that Mr. Messeramith, Sumner Welles (former Undersectary of State) or any of the State Department officials involved had pro-Communist sympathies. The record is clear on this. But the committee is definitely of the opinion that, through the influence and pressure exerted by certain prominent people, efforts were made to manipulate the immigration laws to such an extent that in the final analysis the principal point at issue, that is to say communism, was entirely overlooked and the case resolved itself into a mere determination of whether Eisler was a professor within the meaning of the law. This fact is clearly demonstrated through the exchange of correspondence among the Eislers, their attorneys, the State Department and prominent persons.

In the opinion of the committee this is no defense; for the most a Communit. If the wishes of this

The committee recommends:

1. That the Department of Justice take action to initiate prosection against Elsler for periory as audentive obtaining admission into its country.

YUGOSLAY AID UNIT PLANS TO DISBAND

Decision Was Made Last Year, Spokesman Says, Denying Link to Recent Events

The American Committee for Yugoslav Relief, of which Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt is honorary chairman, announced yesterday that it was ending its activities. The decision was taken last Dec. 15, Zlatko Balokovic, president, said in a letter to its directors and sponsors, because the board of directors felt at that time that circumetances no longer warranted the continuance of the wartime agency.

However, Attorney General Ton Clark accused the organization of being "subversive" last May 29, s charge it denies. The effect, it was understood, was to remove the organization from the list of approved agencies whose shipments are expedited under Department of Commerce licenses by the Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid, headed by Charles Taft.

Link to Upheavals Denied

A spokesman for the American Committee on Yugoslav Relief was asked yesterday if the political disturbances in Yugoslavia created by the dispute between Marshal Tito and the Communist party of the Soviet Union had any bearing on the directors' decision to liquidate He replied that it had no bearing at all, as the decision had been taken last December and had been motivated by the directors' belief that the committee had fulfilled its usefulness.

The committee was involved last October in a shipment of thirty four cases of radio and radar part to the Yugoslavian Red Cross. This also had nothing to do with th decison to liquidate, the spokesma asserted. What happened was that the committee on six or eight occasions had rented part of its warehouse space to other relief agencies, and on one occasion to the Yugoslav Government, he said.

The thirty-four cases, bought on the open market by the Yugoslav Government, got mixed by error GIR 2

"When these obligations have been fulfilled, we shall close our clice and warehouse," Mr. Balokovic wrote. kovic wrote. The letter indicated that some difficulty in carrying out this final phase of the committee's work was anticipated. After recounting that Dr. John A. "We are, of course, morally obligated to disburse the money and goods on hand for the relief purposes for which they were donated. The Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid, under whose authority the collections were made. thority the collections were made, shares in this responsibility.

As of May 31, the committee had received in cash and in kind con-tributions totaling $3,113,710, he said.

AFL Council Cuts Loose From Workers Welcome Soviet Visitors

By GEORGE MORRIS

Apparently unconcerned with the world's fast-moving events, the 15 members of the APL's executive council meeting in Chicago's Drake Hotel, quietly severed the last international labor ties they still had.

William Green announced that the AFL would not be represented at the meeting of the practically extinct international Federation of Trade Unions next month in Paris. He conceded that this defunct body will finally go out of existence and give way to the new and powerful World Federation of Trade Unions that will be launched a few days later.

This comes in face of the world. The significance of such an haking atomic bomb disclosure, enrance of the Soviet Union in the war against Japan and after the Potsdam decisions which gave new evidence of United Nations unity and of the new world that is haping.

The AFL's leaders are still at heir old stand slandering the USSR and its unions which total our times the AFL's in memberhip. Neither domestic labor unity on world labor unity concerns hem. As far as they are concerned, he National Association of Manuacturers can press for its reconersion program unchallenged. ## FACE NEW PRESSURE

But the 15 old gentlemen on the ouncil tree new pressure. A deletation representing the Committee for AFL Amiliation with the World Pederation of Trade Unions, rerently formed at a Cleveland conference of AFL labor leaders, will seek a hearing before the council Monday. They will place before it the reasons why even the conservatve Council minds should change on the issue,

Meanwhile, a delegation of 10 wirt trade union leaders headed v Vassili Kusnetser, chairman of it all-union Cornell of Trade Inions, is receiving a rousing wel-wire as it iours america's cities inder CIO auspices. This is the irst of several delegations that the 'IO invited in a move to strengthen nternational labor ties. French and witten to est tone ate of arrive change of goodwill ambassadors can hardly be overestimated. For 27 years American workers have not seen a Soviet labor leader in person. As Kuznetsov noted in his Carnegie Hall mass meeting, some people even showed surprise that Boviet people wear suits and neckties and dresses like our own.

As they visited factories, union halls and gave press interviews in Chicago, Detroit, Philadelphia, New York and other cities, they were bombarded with questions on the ordinary day to day affairs of So viet unions. How do they settle grievances? Why aren't there strikes in the USSR? What are their, postwar plans? Are wages cut when hours are reduced? Are AFL charges of "government domination" true?

GAVE THE FACTS

Kuznetsoy didn't polemize with the AFL. He merely gave factual information. That shattered AFL propaganda far more effectively than arguments could. When Kuz-net ov described how a labor management grievance setup operates from the shop to the top central committee of the affected union, and the final decision is with the union, people easily realized why there are no strikes.

"We don't see any sense in having strikes just to show that it is permissible to sirike in the Soviet Union," said Kuznetsov.

Equally impressive was the information that reduction in hours from 10 or 12 to eight, is not accompanied by a cut in take-home pay. And Kuznetaov pointed out further that in the Soviet Union not unemployment but a shortage of labor is the difficulty that confronts the country.

The visit of the delegation is also of tremendous educational value in CIO rinks, giving far greater con-tent to the internationalism that has been developing among its mem-

NAB Moves Towards Establishing TV Code

A preliminary move by the National Association of Broadcasters for the possible formulation of a code to govern television shows was announced yesterday before a inncheon meeting of the American Television Society by Theodore Carrelbert, president of stations WOR and WOR-TV.

Streibert shared the rostrum with Joseph T/Breen, vice-president of the Motion Picture Association of America and administrator of the production code which governs the manufacture of all entertainment films in this country.

bert said that the National Association of Broadcasters was engaged in forming a committee to study means of setting up "some kind of television code

"The time is coming," he said, "when we will have to adopt basic reg-

He warned that unless such regulations were set up, television broadcasters could expect interference from governmental bodies.

"And as soon as we get censorship from the city, state, or government, we cease to be a free medium," he added.

Streibert told reporters later at 4 p.m. over WNBT.
that WOR-TV was enforcing the Arturo Soscanni and the NBC "principal applications of the mo-tion picture code" to programs on that station. He said that the NAB committee will undoubtedly study the motion picture code for possible application of its provisions to television.

Breen said it would be "an unbardonable presumption on my part to suggest what you should o."

He told of difficulties encoun-tered when the motion picture code was first applied twenty years but pointed out that self-reago, but pointed out that self-re-marked by the industry has neated the activities of seven state rensorship boards and at least 40 municipal censorship boards. ### Widow Dedicates Roosevelt College

The atomic bomb may lead the world to definite decisions and actions, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt told an overflow audience of students yesterday/afternoon in the auditorium of Roosevelt College at 231 S. Wells st.

"If you really face the fact that human beings have the knowledge to destroy civilization, I think it may give us an impetus we need to decide that we no longer can say if we will do something but rather 'this is what we are going to do,'" Mrs. Roosevelt said.

College Dedicated.

The widow of the late President addressed the scudents a few hours before she formally dedicated Roosevelt College, named for her husband, at a dinner at the Stevens Hotel.

She was given an ovation as she arrived at the Jackson blvd. entrance to the college, preceded by an automobile containing five plainclothesmen.

Students Greeted.

She shook hands with all students in the front row of the assembly room as the went to the sembly room as sne went to the speaker's platform to be introduced by Dr. Edward Sparling president of the college.

Mrs. Roosevelt congratulated the college because of its non-discriminatory etititida.

discriminatory attitude.

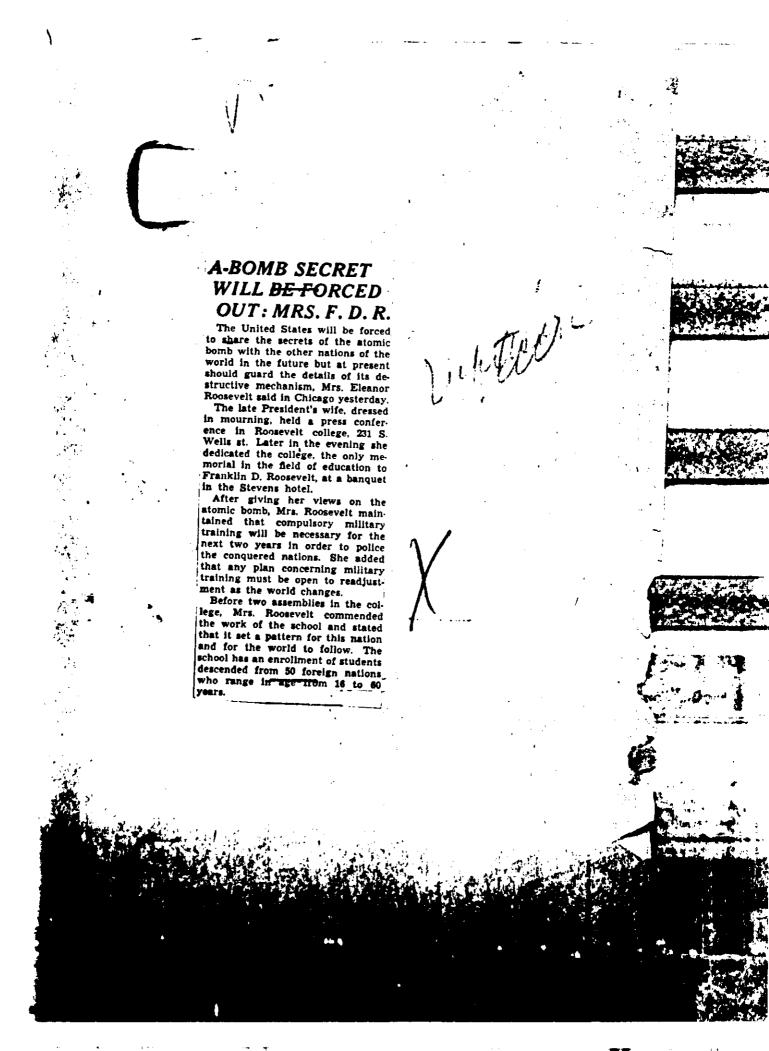

Example Inspires Hope.

"You have set the pattern," she said, "and if it is followed across the country I think it will bring hope to a great many countries in the world that it is possible for all to live in peace."

Mrs. Roosevelt told the students that unless they planned for a better life, and prepared themselves for it along great lines, ashe did not believe they would achieve It.

"You must drave a dream and work for it," she said.

WILL BE FORCED OUT: MRS. F. D. R.

The United States will be forced to share the secrets of the atomic bomb with the other nations of the world in the future but at present should guard the details of its destructive mechanism, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt said in Chicago yesterday.

The late President's wife, dressed in mourning, held a press conference in Roosevelt college, 231 S. Wells st. Later in the evening she dedicated the college, the only memorial in the field of education to Franklin D. Roosevelt, at a banquet in the Stevens hotel.

After giving her views on the atomic bomb, Mrs. Roosevelt maintained that compulsory military training will be necessary for the next two years in order to police the conquered nations. She added that any plan concerning military training must be open to readjustment as the world changes.

Before two assemblies in the college, Mrs. Roosevelt commended the work of the school and stated that it set a pattern for this nation and for the world to follow. The school has an enrollment of students descended from 50 foreign nations who range in age from 16 to 60

onference Of Progressive

ON JANUARY 4 a group of progressives will meet here in Washington in an effort to shape rogram on which it is hoped eventually that millions of Americans can agree. In many ways this meeting is likely to have an importance beyond the treatment it will receive in the Dews.

In the first place, the effort

Childs is not to make Childs headlines. The day-long meeting will be off the record, with the conclusions announced to the press at the end of the session.

One reason why this meeting has special significance is that perhaps for the first time for such a gathering a deliberate and careful effort has been made to exclude Communists. It is beheld under the auspices of the Union for Democratic Action, of which Dr. Reinhold Niebuhr, protessor of applied Christianity at Union Theological Seminary, is the head.

Dr. Niebuhr, a forceful and militant progressive, has persistently resisted the attempts of Communists and fellow travelers to make every democratic movement merely another part of the tail on the Communist kite. More often than not, the Communists have succeeded by their ruthless tactics merely to disrupt the organizations they attempt to take over.

WHILE THEY will attend as individuals rather than as representatives of their organiza-tions, several of the labor leaders who will participate are those who have long worked to rid the unions of Communist fellowtraveler intrigue. They have seen the disastrous effect of this intriguing that has helped to divide the labor movement and to make individual unions serve the end of Russian foreign policy rather than true trade unionism. Among the union officials who will par-ticipate, are Alland Haywood, George Baldanzi and James B. Carey by the City and David Dubinsky and Boris hishkin of the AFL.

One of the prominent par-ticipants will be Mrs. Eleanor Boosevelt. Mrs. Roosevelt has had her own searing experiences with the Communists. But these 57 JAN 1 Separation have only strength-fendlifer belief in a progres-livery larged out he fundamental human freedoms. Out of deal conviction, this remarkable roman stood up to the Russian delegates at the recent United Nations sessions in defense of the rights of displaced persons. Again and again with moving eloquence she defended those rights.

Among the office-holders and former office-holders who will attend is Minneapolis' Mayor Huberttiumphrey. Still in the tury thirties, Mr. Humphrey has won a wide reputation for his leadership of Progressive forces in Minnesota.

Representative Helen Gahagan Douglas will be present, along with two defeated progressives.

Jerry Cornis of California and Mrs. Chase Going Woodhouse of Connecticut. One of the few officials in the Truman Administration invited to participate is Undersecretary of Interior Oscar Chapman, who has repeatedly proved his belief in the Democratic ideal.

Besides these well-known figures, there will be others not ordinarily associated with political movements. Bishop William Scarlett of the Episcopal Church in Missouri will come from St. Louis to take part to the meet-ing. So will Edward Wurrow of the Columbia Broadcasting Sys-tem and Harry Schacter, Louis-ville, Ky., department store di-

THE COMMON denominator will be the desire to unite on a progressive program that can gain the widest possible support throughout the country. This program will cover social reform, race relations and all the vexatious problems bound to arise in coming years.

A declaration of common purpose will be particularly important in the light of the witch hunting and Red baiting that Congress may indulge in. If the Republicans allow the Rankin-Ernie Adamson mentality to prevail, then everyone who ever has worked for a progressive cause will be smeaned with the Red label.

That is one reason why the sponsors of the coming meeting are so careful to keep out those with Communist affiliations. They want it to be unmistakably clear that this is a progressive democratic group with no concealed motives. It is interesting that the Communist left should show sufficient resentment to try to persuade some of the participants not to attend.

The January 4 meeting may not shake the world. But the conscientious men and women who sit down togother hope to agree on a platform that will correspond to the desires and aspirations of millions of Ameri-

ARS. ROOSEVELT DISAGREES

by Max Gordon

ELEANOR ROOSEVELT WAS the top liberal figure at the conference that organized the Americans for Democratic Action in Washington over the Jan. I weekend.

But when it was all over she did not become a member of the outfit's organizing committee.

A lot of secrecy surrounded the conference. which "off-the-WAR record," a n d my picture of it is somewhat blurred. But Mrs. Roosevelt's World-

Telegram column last urday suggests all was not peace and harmony, and may be the clue as to why she turned down the organizing committee's

In her column, the former first lady challenges a speech made at the conference by Louis Pischer, one of Social-Democrat David Dubinsky's inner circle, in which Fischer said that fascism and communism are identical, and that when you fight fascism you : also fight communism.

MRS. ROOSEVELT quite properly infers that the speech means that Louis Fischer does not be-Heve the Soviet Union and the United States can live at peace with each other and respect each other's independence.

She is against him on that and, in fact, rejects the whole idea behind the ADA, as expressed in its statement of purpose. The ADA classes communism with fascism and claims both have to be fought ! equally.

Here is the key paragraph in Mrs. Roosevelt's column, and it is a snighty important one, too:

"We who believe that, so far, democracy is the best form of self-government nevertheless recognize that it is not static and changes must come. I think we can see the possibilities of improved cooperation between the communism of the left and the democracy of the center, but there can be no cooperation at any point, at any time, between democracy and the fascism of the right."

MRS. ROOSEVELT writes that she read Lerner's editorial on the subject "with interest," but comments directly only on the part in which Lerner says there is a world of difference between communism and fascism.

I disagree Intensely with some things Mrs. Roosevelt says in that column, as, for instance, when she insists that are many similarities between "the two totalitarian

She also sees great differences, maintains she is not convinced she knows what those differences are, and then proceeds to list a couple of pretty important ones.

· I think she is seriously mistaken when she sees "many similarities" between communism ad fascism and we will have to argue further with her on that.

But the point is that people can be mistaken on that boue, continue AFFRE out, and can still cooperate right now in a single progressive movement which will fight like blazes to block those who are trying to drag us into a war, to smash up the unions, to wreck the programs of the New Deal, and to get set for the destruction of democracy altogether.

Considering what we are up against in the country teday, this cooperation is not only something e CAN bring about, but MUST If we are to get anywhere.

MRS. ROOSEVELT'S aufference With Louis Fischer for his point of view, points to the heart of the unnatural alliance between Social Democrats and liberals within the Americans for Democratic Action.

The great majority of the liberals believe that world cooperation for peace is necessary and possible. They want to work for it against the American species of Churchill.

But not so the Social Democrats. I am reminded, for instance, of Dubinsky's notorious statement at the height of the war in early 1943, when at a Workmen's Circle convention he publicly declared that Nathan Chanin, Workmen's Circle president, spoke also for him when Chanin said:

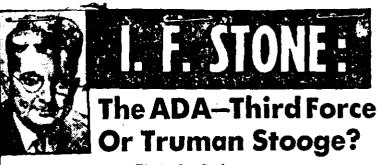

"The last shot has not been fired. It will be fired from free America-and from that shot, the Stalin regime, too, will be shot to Pleces."

Does Dubinsky think that way today? Read the resolutions of the AFL convention, where he masterminded foreign policy, and the New Leader, weekly organ of his Social Democrats!

Yet Dubinsky and several of his close political pals are members of the ADA organizing committee, along with some earnest liberals.

First of a Series

Washington, Apr. 2 — The cold war is the Great Divide of American left-of-center politics. The place to begin an examination of the convention held here this weekend by Americans for Democratic Action is with the position it took on foreign policy.

For the question of foreign policy is the fundamental differences between those ex-New Dealers who followed Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt into the ADA and those who followed Henry A. Wallace into the Progressive Party.

The ADA would like to be a progressive tail strong enough to wag the Democratic dog. Those who would like to determine which wags which may find it instructive to study several documents which figured at the convention.

These documents all dealt with the task of amending and bringing up to date the statement of principles adopted last year. One document gave the amendments on foreign policy put forward by the Washington, D. C., chapter of the ADA, the best informed chapter in the organization.

Another document provided the text of the amendments drafted at the direction of the National Board, but not re viewed by the National Board or Executive Committee."

This was the work of the ADA headquarters staff, which is more alert than the leadership.

A third document was the "proposed foreign policy program" as drafted by the Foreign Policy Commission and submitted to the floor.

A study of these documents shows a constant watering down of critical viewpoint to attain conformity with the Truman Administration's point of view. The rejected amendments are the buried bones from which the political paleontologist can feconstruct the inner life of the ADA.

None of these rejected amendments embodied views which do no command wide support abroad among non-Communist and anti-Communist Parties in Western Europe and the non-Soviet colonial world. To study the amendments which were shelved is to see that the ADA is being pulled by the Cold War into positions which are to the right of similar "Third Force" groups in Europe and Asia.

Washin con chapter said "the extension of East-West trade in Europe Let #3 begin with the Marshall Plan. A rejected amendment by the of the success of the ERP and to the stabilization of the sponomy. It should, therefore, be encouraged, subject to requirements of military security." The first sentence merely stated tions which supported the original Marshall Plan. The second sentence allowed ample leeway for cold war embargoes on war materials. It would not, however, support a licensing system like the one now being used to wage economic warfare against Eastern Europeat the cost of hampering recovery in Western Europe.

The amendment would, I believe, command a majority vote not only in the non-Communist West Eu-fropan left but on the West Eu-ropean right. It never got through to the floor at the ADA.

In the amendments drafted by the staff on ERP there is the sent tence. "We condemn those who would use the ERP as a means of preventing necessary social change." The sentence before this and the sentence after it were left intact by the draft which emerged from the Foreign Policy Commission. But that sentence was left

I do not think I exaggerate when I say the omitted sentence embodies something the non-Communist oro-Marshall Plan West European | left-of-center-including a section of the Catholic center parties in France and Italy—have been desperately trying to tell their American friends for months.

The same drift in response to the same kind of Trumanite conformist pressure is visible when we turn from the Marshall Plan, which concerns Western Europe, to Point 4, which concerns the colonial world.

The amendments drafted by the aff said, "We believe that the staff said. present plans rely too heavily upon inducing a flow of private capital? through a scheme of preferential arrangements for American increstors."

Careful scrutiny of investment ruaranties was asked to make sure they do not "involve improper in with internal affairs terference"

The Washington chapter voted to ask the convention to strengthen this draft to make sure that the capital invested abroad its appro-priate share of risks and taxes" and do not involve interference "with the development of the liberties of their peoples.

Most important of all was the Washington chapter's proposal to make available "public financing on an adequate scale to carry out sound well-conceived development programs" instead of relying on quaranteed private investments, and that this public financing be one "as far as possible through international agencies in order to avoid both the charge and the fact of imperialism."

None of these amendments, either the staff's or the Washington chapter's got past the Foreign Policy Commission.

The discarded amendments express views strongly put forward at the United Nations and in Washington by representatives of the non-Communist colonial world. They go to the heart of the measures necessary to make development of these areas possible without loss of independence either to Washington or Moscow.

They are genuine "third force" proposals.

Germany

The same tendency to trim the DA's sails to the Administration's may be seen at work in dealing with Germany, where Amend-ments which reflect the views of German Social Democracy were rejected.

One such amendment, from the Washington chapter, would have condemned the return of Nazis to "key political and economic posi-tions" and the failure to "take effective steps against the reactivation of international cartels, or against the revival of Nazi doc-

An equally important, by the staff, would have had the ADA condemn the policy by which dilitary Government, catering to minority of European reacdonaries, has sought to bring an unreal, 'free enterprise' to Germany at the cost of alienating democratic groups all over Eu-

This also never got past the Foreign Policy Commission.

Spain

Even on so deeply felt an issue as Spain, the Foreign Policy Commission took out of the draft prepared by the staff the sentence which would have put the ADA off record as protesting "American support for the return of the U.N.s ambassadors to Madrid" and added a clever clause which would have excused the return of the American ambassador.

This clause endorsing whatever diplomatic arrangements" may be necessary "to maintain contact with the people of Spain" was taken out by a motion from the floor. It is as if the blue pencil of the State Dept. operated behind the scenes of the convention.

Palestine

A slick hidden hand also was evident in the references to Israel. The Washington chapter proposed to deplore "the continued arming of the Arab states by Great Brit ain as a threat to the peace of the Near East."

This proposal was shelved inside the Foreign Policy Commission. Its draft called instead for "U.N. control of competitive arms smuggling in the Near East." This would have hit the Jews but not the Arabs, since the latter do not need to smuggle. The Arabs get their arms openly from Britain, which can in turn replace them from the Atlantic Pact military assistance program.

All that was accomplished from the floor was to change the word "smuggling" to "shipping." That wee tremor was the best the ADA ail could do.

TOMORROW: The ADA and the H-bomb.

Liberals' Unite for '48 at $10 Per Plate

By DR. RUTH ALEXANDER

At the witching hour of 7 on Wednesday evening, Nov. 12, in the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel Commodore in New York City, the Americans for Democratic Action are staging a Rally for Liberals" at ten dollars per plate.

Naturally, ten dollars is too much for a plate dinner, so some classy speeches will be thrown in for good measure. They will be by the Right Hon. Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Hon. Benjamin Cohen, the Hon. Chester Bowles, etc., and move of same.

Curiously enough, the chairman of the affair is Junior -Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., that is.

Still more curiously, the title of the dinner-yes, gentle as yell as victuals—is UNITE FOR '48!

#mericans for Democratic Action first came to my attention through an article in The

New York Times Magazine of Dr. Alexander July 27, although they were organized last January. The author of this 10-point creed for Liberals (and the chairman of Americans for Democratic Action) was Mr. Wilson W. Wyatt, national housing administrator under Franklin D. Roosevell, Sr.

Mr. Wyatt explained, in a lengthy article, planks for a platform on which, he believes, Liberals in our times must stand. (He might better have got together some planks for houses In which veterans of our time could live!)

Be that as it may, Mr. Wyatt proclaims the creed of "Americans for Democratic Action" to lie in "accepting the premise that government must assume responsibility for regulating wide nning to areas of our economic life."

That, my friends, is Socialism.

Some folks call it a planned economy and, sure enough, Mr. Wyatt is in favor of planning. Where has he been all his life that he doesn't know that "the USSR offers the one and only example of really comprehensive planning in time of peace the world has ever seen." Surely Americans for Democratic Action do not want a society here which resembles even remotely the society of Communist Russia. Or do they?

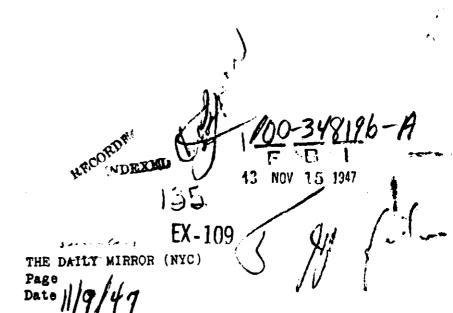

And another thing, how come they throw mud at Congress—the greatest instrument for gen-uine constitutional democratic action in America? Take a gander at plank No. 8 in Chairman Wyatt's creed for Liberals-

"The reckless and indiscriminate assaults committed by the House un-American Activities Committee have created resentment and martyrdom...The loose standards and inadequate safeguards set forth in the 'loyalty order' for Government employes and the Rees Bill represent an ominous retreat."

Now, Mr. Wyatt, do you think that's nice to accuse your Congress of "reckless and indiscriminate assaults?" Against whom? "Inadequate safeguards." For whom? "Ominous retreat." From what?

Tell us more, because the more I think of it the more I wish you all had upped the price per plate to include a tourist ticket to the planned paradise on the Volga.

No Art Hourishes on Censorship and Repression

By ELEANOR ROOSEVELT

NEW YORK, Tuesday— I have waited a while before saying anything about the Un-American Activities Committee's current investigation of the Hollywood film industry.

I would not be very much sur-prised if some writers or prised if some writers or actors or stagehands, or what not, were found to have Communist leanings, but I was surprised to find that, at the start of the in-quiry, some of the big producers were so chickeneharted about speaking up for the freedom of their industry their industry.

One thing is sure—none of the arts flourishes on censorship and arts flourishes on censorship and repression. And by this time it should be evident the American public is canable of doing its own consoring. Certainly, the Thomas Committee is growing more ludicrous daily. The picture of six officers ejecting a writer from the witness stand because he ferused to say whether he was a Communist or not is pretty funny, and I think before long we are all going to see how hysterical and foolish we have become

The film industry is a great industry, with infinite possibilities for good and bad. Its primary purpose is to entertain people. It can do many other things. It can popularize certain ideals, it can make education platable. But in the long run, the judge who de-cides whether what it does is good or bad is the man or woman who attend the movies. In democratic country I do not think the public will tolerate a removal of its right to decide what it thinks of the ideas and perform-ances of those who make the movie industry work.

HAVE never liked the idea of an Un-American Activities Committee. I have always thought a strong democracy should stand by its fundamental beliefs and that a I. S. cilizen should be considered incommitted. sidered innocent until he is proved guilty.

If he is employed in a Government position where he has access to secret and important papers, then for the sake of security he must undergo some special tests. However, I doubt whether the loy-ally test really adds much to our safety, since no Communist would nesitate to sign it and he would be in good standing until he was proved guilty. So it seems to me that we might as well do awa with a test which is almost an in suit to any loyel American citizen.

American Activities Committee worries me primarily because little people have become frightened and we find ourselves living in the atmosphere of a police state, where people close doors be fore they state what they think or look over their shoulders apprehensively before they express an

And while accepting the fact that some of our press, our radio commentators, our prominent citizens and our movies may at times be blamed legitimately for things they have said and done, still I feel that the fundamental right of freedom of fundamental right of freedom of thought and expression is essential. If you curtail what the other fellow says and does, you curtail what you yourself may say and
